

I feel that Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air the anti-Kerry film now shows that the company cannot be trusted to act in the public good. This decision is also a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest. But when large companies control the airwaves, we get more of what's good for the bottom line and less of what we need for our democracy.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. You should stop this film and other attempts like it. Thank you.
